

Paint Carving with Anna Tang'

Anna is a local Auckland artist. She uses her background in design to thoughtfully compose beautifully arranged pieces, inspired by the gardens of her clients and nature unique to New Zealand.

Many layers of paint form the base for her work. Using a carving technique, the design is then carved out revealing the white underneath, creating a rich texture to the surface of the work.

These workshops are designed to give people an introduction to paint carving and try something creative and different, regardless of artistic ability.

This is available to everyone regardless of artistic ability. Starting with carving practice on soft cutting mats. After choosing your design we will then trace onto board.

Then the carving begins!

This workshop has limited numbers be in quick to secure your spot. Please note all materials supplied.
